

LAW

HUMANITIES

ENFORCEMENT

FREE Professional Development Opportunity

CEU Credits Provided

August 18, 2017*

History Museum

of Mobile

8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Local LEAs may host this course according to a one-day or a two-day schedule:

SESSION ONE (4 hours) & SESSION TWO (4 hours)

*To register, call or email Laura Anderson 205.558.3992 or landerson@alabamahumanities.org

OVERVIEW

AHF's goal in piloting this course is to encourage Alabama law enforcement officers in their work and to aid in the development of leadership, decision-making, and skills necessary to accomplish their work throughout the communities they protect and serve.

The AHF workshop will provide background information on the story of the Scottsboro defendants (pictured above), how their cases & the cause of their defense drew national & international attention, & how court decisions associated with their defense influence life & justice in the United States today.

Pursuant to guidelines provided by the Alabama Peace Officers Standards & Training Commission (APOSTC), the workshop will provide Continuing Education Units (CEUs) to participating law enforcement officers & administrators.

This program is made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH).

PHILOSOPHY
LITERATURE
ETHICS • HISTORY
JURISPRUDENCE
HISTORY OF THE ARTS
LANGUAGES ALABAMA
HUMANITIES FOUNDATION

 Meals/refreshments will be provided throughout the sessions. For one-day courses, lunch will be provided between 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. For two-day courses, boxed lunches will be provided upon conclusion of the second session.