“How Many Lives Did I End Tonight?”

WHAT'S TRENDING NOW?

Per AI.com, Joshua Lamar Knighten, 35, is being held in Morgan County Jail on a charge of capital murder for allegedly shooting into the vehicle of Mitchell Ray Beard, 62, of Falkville, who died Sunday at the scene of the shootings at Goodwin Road. Two others were also allegedly shot, and one of those two died.

According to an affidavit filed, the perpetrator allegedly stated to arresting officers "How many lives did I end tonight?"

"How many lives did I end tonight?".... A question only Satan would ask.

As I watch communities across Alabama, and our nation, struggle with increasing violent crime and murder rates, I see a society struggling to cope. Struggling to cope with all the symptoms of a country who has strayed from "In God We Trust". And while that is just a motto added to currency, it communicates the most important foundation for a strong America. "Trust" and "God". Without both we become a nation floundering, killing each other, stealing from each other, lying to each other.

Politicians and law enforcement can try to deal with the symptoms of the impact of evil in our world, but until each and every one of us looks to the Lord Almighty to guide our actions in this world, Satan will look to take advantage of every opportunity possible to destroy.

I'm sure Satan was proud to hear his mantra: "How many lives did I end tonight?"

Don't let Hate win the day. Look for an opportunity each and every day to change the course of our Nation, one community at a time!

May God bless you.
